Dear Delores,
Here's wishing a nice little junior-to-be lots of luck,
success, and happiness
in the many future years.
I'll miss everyone of you
but you can't go to high school forever — or can you? Best wishes,

Dear Delores,
This is all I got to say
but you asked for it.

Don't say me no case,
Why don't you get stream lined pair."

FOREWORD

In this 1947 edition of the Dragonette we, the Journalism Class, hope we have given due time and space to the important things which make life in Superior High School so happy and profitable.

WE DEDICATE THIS ANNUAL

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1947. We sincerely hope that you will resolve to do your share in the great task of building security, moral justice, and ethical behavior. The future depends greatly upon these qualities. Without them there will be little social improvement. With them there is sure to be a brighter day---tomorrow.

HISTORY OF S. H. S.

In January of 1925, the doors of Superior High School were first opened to students with Mr. G. N. Green as the first Superintendent and Mr. L. P. Williams, Principal.

The High School was built by the Kellogg Construction Company at a cost of $75,000 for building and furnishings for which bonds were issued.

Before the erection of the present buildings, the first grade was the Community Church; Home Economics Laboratory was the first house above the Catholic Church; Crombie's house in D Camp was the first, second, and third grades and the house below the high school was the athletic department. High school was held in the grade school building and the Opera House was the scene of many athletic events.

There have been six superintendents of the four-year high school since its founding in 1925. George Norman Green was the first, followed by Ira Russell, then George Burton, who died while in office. Charles Purma, the Principal, finished out the year. The following year Mr. A. L. Keeney took over the position and held it until July, 1946. At that time Mr. I. R. Willey, our present Superintendent, took the position.

Each year, Superior High, with its buildings and equipment, faculty and personnel, offers many opportunities to its students.

Many students have come and gone from S. H. S. since its founding in 1925. We should respect our school because it is the beginning of our future.

We're from Superior High School,
Hail schoolmates, hail,
Hail to our colors gay,
Hail to the teachers,
Hail to every single thing, for
We're from Superior High School,
We never fail any time or any place,
So, hail! Hail! Hail!

To Readers of the Dragonette:

This publication is a monument to the energy and versatility of the Journalism Class. It is issued in the hope that it will bring satisfaction and happiness to those who have been privileged to attend the Superior Schools.

As we explore these pages in years to come our hearts will rejoice and we will be thrilled with the fond memories which the pictures will recall.

The Dragonette is more than a picture book. It is a symbol of a democratic school and it depicts the educational opportunities of the youth of today. It reminds us of work and of play in the class room and social event, and out of all these we have the memory of what school life has meant to us.

May this annual take its place along with its worthy predecessors in carrying over to all the students the spirit and purpose of our school.

SENIOR HISTORY

Boyd Soltis--Student Body President
John Legerski--President
Pat Dean--Vice-president
Joe Odorizzi--Secretary-Treasurer
Arthur Magagna--Reporter

Our twelve years in Superior Schools have passed very eventfully, and very pleasantly.

Eighteen of us have had the unique pleasure of attending this school since the first grade. We are: Naoma Anderson, Sophie Andrich, Elda Bertagnolli, Gerald Clark, Roberta Crombie, Pat Dean, James Flohr, Laura Hiner, Dorene King, Mildred Levar, Arthur Magagna, Vera Morrow, Geraldine Marsh, Ellen Moser, Dorothy Overy, Margaret Smith, Boyd Soltis, and Alice Bettolo.

For the first six years of our school careers we were separated by half of us going to "B" Hill and the rest of us going to "White City" school.

The only eventful happenings in grade school were the entrance into the third grade of Miriam and Eugene Pietala from Roberts, Montana, and the football and basketball games held at the ball diamond between the "White City" and the "B" Hill grades. THE FIGHTS WE HAD!

Then came the day when the high school building was for us! In the seventh grade Joe Odorizzi left to make his home in Reck Springs. In the eighth grade Dorothy Franklin entered from Lander, Wyoming.

The High and Mighty Seniors were just little Freshmen four short years ago. We were initiated into high school after a few short weeks of school, two to be exact, but only to bear the title "Green" but we didn't mind because we knew we'd get our revenge the next year. For the initiation the girls wore: gunny sack skirts (six inches above the knees), green skull caps, white blouses, green sashes, one knee length sock, one anklet, one house shoe and one boy's shoe. The boys were garbed in gunny sack shirts, swimming trunks, peter pan collars and cuffs, men's shoes, silk socks, hair curled and make-up. We spent a very entertaining and exciting afternoon at the mercy of those horrid sophomores. In payment for our initiation we entertained the Sophies at a Freshman-Sophomore Picnic a few short weeks later. We had two new additions to our class this year, Morris DeCroo from Oklahoma and Claudia Tweedy from Eureka, South Dakota. We lost John Legerski to Rock Springs for one year.

Finally the time came for revenge and we really mean revenge! Oh, those poor "Freshies" that day. Torture was the watch word of the day. We really felt we were growing up when the Freshies honored us at the Freshman-Sophomore picnic. Also, the class presented a Wyoming Day Program. We were the first class to make room 101 the Sophomore Home Room. Miss Watson was our Home Room teacher for two years. John Legerski came back this year.

We now take you to April 26th, 1946 and our Junior year. The time has come for the gala affair of the season, "The Junior Prom". We worked madly to finish our prom theme "Blue Champagne" in time. It was a real success. The crowning of the queen, Alice Bettolo, was the high light of the evenings events. Miriam Pietala, Margaret Smith, Ellen Moser, and Vera Morrow were her attendants. To mention a few of the things we did to earn money were: give dances, gave a card party, and cold pop corn, pop, candy, (and anything else we could get shold of to sell) at the ball games. Joe Odorizzi came back to spend his last two years at S. H. S. and to graduate here.

Dorene King, Miriam Pietala, and Margaret Smith had the honor of attending "Wonderful Wyoming's Girl State" in August before school started this year.

Now we are Seniors of S. H. S. Our first event of the year was our "Valentine's Day Senior Ball." This ball was the first of its kind to be a success. John Kovach's orchestra furnished the music.

Alice Bettolo, Dorene King, and Miriam Pietala were chosen as cheerleaders to lead the way.

Boys lettering in Football in their high school years were: Boyd Soltis and Pat Dean, Junior year, Gerald Clark, James Flohr, Arthur Magagna, Joe Odorizzi, Boyd Soltis and Pat Dean, Senior year. All boys lettering in their Senior year received "S" sweaters. Pat Dean and Boyd Soltis were the only Senior boys to letter in Basketball this year. They also lettered in their Junior year.

Miriam Pietala has participated four years in the "All School Play." Dorene King three years, Eugene Pietala two years, James Flohr, Dorothy Franklin, and John Legerski one year.

Outstanding in the high school dance orchestra were: Dorene King for four years, Miriam Pietala for three years, Eugene Pietala, Vera Morrow, and Joe Odorizzi for two years.

Well, to our regret, this concludes our school life at good old Superior High School, but we shall never forget our days here.
